

"Sixth Annual Latin American and Caribbean Festival"

Friday, September 19, 2008
5:00 PM to 10:00 PM
Oxford Uptown Parks

The UniDiversity Festival is an incredible opportunity to join efforts to promote diversity and inclusion in our community, and it is also a chance to learn more about the peoples and cultures that are quickly emerging as the largest minority group in the United States. This festival is part of a month of activities encompassed with National Hispanic Heritage Month in mid-September. People experience a wide variety of cultural manifestations, a taste of some of the finest cuisines around the world, a unique repertory of music and dances, arts and crafts, children's activities, petting zoo, and display of literature/panels/photo exhibits about the region. Come and join us!
